

Johnstone's Young Painter of the Year

Rules of the Competition

1. To enter, an entry form must be completed in full and submitted by 16th March 2012.
2. Students must be working towards NVQ level 2 or Intermediate Construction Award in painting and decorating.
3. PPG reserves the right to refuse application for any student not meeting the entry criteria as set out above or for submission of an incomplete entry form.
4. After the closing date, entrants will be sent a letter inviting them to take part in the regional heat which is closest to their college.
5. Students are required to make their own way to regional heats.
6. Travel costs to the national final will be reimbursed for finalists.
7. Details of the national final will be provided during the regional heats.
8. Prior to the commencement of work at the regional heats and the final, there will be a draw for work stations.
9. The competition requires students to complete a decorative scheme which will involve setting out, working to a specification, applying different paint types and colours, and applying stencils.
10. The national final will also include a written theory test.
11. PPG are not able to supply entrants with example specifications prior to the regional heats or the national final.
12. Students must only work on their own areas and their work and ideas must be their own.
13. Students should work safely and promote the safety of others.
14. College tutors and employers may accompany their students/apprentices to the heats and the final of the competition but may not confer with them at any point.
15. Should students need assistance during the competition, they should liaise only with the PPG technical personnel and agree a course of action.
16. Students may bring their own tools and equipment to the competition as long as they do not promote a brand that is in competition with Johnstone's. Any materials promoting competitor brands will be removed during the competition period.
17. The winner of each regional heat and the winner of the national final will be the person who scores the highest combined mark from each element of the competition.
18. All winners and their work are required to take part in publicity undertaken on behalf of PPG Architectural Coatings.
19. Infringement of any of the rules may result in the reduction of marks in the relevant section(s).
20. The decision of the judges on any of the above, or any matter or situation not detailed, will be final and binding.
21. By agreeing to take part in this competition you also agree to abide by the rules.

By entering the Johnstone's Young Painter of the Year 2012 competition, the student and his/her representatives agree to abide by these rules.

JOHNSTONE'S 2012 YOUNG PAINTER OF THE YEAR

Would you like to be crowned Johnstone's Young Painter of the Year 2012?

Johnstone's Young Painter of the Year is a prestigious painting and decorating competition which celebrates young talent, promotes best practice and encourages young people to pursue a career in the decorating industry.

The competition consists of a series of regional heats and a national final and assesses students painting and decorating skills including...

- Setting out a design
- Working to a technical specification
- Applying different types of paint
- Selecting and using application tools
- Applying stencils

Regional Heats

Entrants will be invited to take part in one of the regional heats that will take place during March/April (exact dates TBC). Regional heats are 1 day events at the end of which a winner will be selected.

The winner of each heat receives a prize of £100 and the runner up £30.

All entrants will receive a goody bag.

National Final

Winners of the regional heats will be invited to take part in the National Final - details to be advised during the regional heats.

As well as the practical element, the national final also consists of a written theory test.

The overall winner will receive a package of prizes worth up to £2000.
